

Construction begins

It took a few weeks for the formalities to be concluded. Three builders were invited to tender for the project and were interviewed by Sr. Pascalina and Fr. Oliver. On Fr. Oliver's advice, Sr. Pascalina opened a separate bank account for the project, so that all expenditure could be recorded and accounted for independently. Once the builder was chosen, we transferred some funds to the new account so that materials could be purchased. Then, in the second week in March, work began. Below are just a few of the many photographs taken on site on 11th March.
