Thinking Ahead

Fellow Parishioners, recent developments in our parish will affect us beginning this summer. Many of you may be away now and it is necessary to put you in the picture.

Father Tom, now in his ninetieth year, will no longer offer public Mass as he has been doing each Thursday and Saturday mornings. He will continue to hear Saturday Confessions and concelebrate on certain occasions. I know we will all miss his liturgies here in our church which he has served without break since 1998. He is a born teacher, as I can testify from his time in Farranferries, one of the finest Maths teachers of all time, I was privileged to be his pupil my Leaving Cert Year. His teaching continued throughout all his years since when he opened up the Scriptures to us time after time together with the Reflections published in the newspapers and in our weekly Bulletins. These Reflections will continue monthly with us and he will continue to advise us on many matters.

We have decided that we can no longer celebrate the Mass on Saturday mornings. Most city parishes already have made this decision. Two neighbouring parishes offer Mass on Saturday morning ; Sacred Heart Western Road and St. Joseph's SMA in Wilton. These are our sister parishes. The only exception for us will be in the event of a funeral when it will be offered at 10.00am.

Our neighbouring priest, Canon Dan Crowley will offer Mass every Friday morning. We are blessed to have Father Prasad with us; he was so helpful while I was sick and will be with us (shared with Curraheen Road) until the end of September. While I am away, he will be a tremendous support, together with Bishop Noel O' Regan and Father Cormac Breathnach.

I return in late August and will write each week as I have been doing while I am away. Our Home Team of Ministers, staff and volunteers continue to be a great source of blessing to us and we thank God for all you do in our church.

Our final Saturday morning Mass will be July 26th at 10 am.

Until next week,
Fr. Donal.
